

Benjamin C. Gray

Partner and Head of Australia and New Zealand
TPG Capital

Benjamin Gray is a Partner of TPG Capital and Head of Australia and New Zealand. Ben jointly led TPG's investment in Myer and oversees TPG's investment activities in the region. TPG Capital is one of the world's largest private equity funds with US$50 billion in equity under management. TPG has a long history of investing in transportation and infrastructure assets.

Prior to joining TPG in 2004, Ben was a Director of Credit Suisse where he worked for ten years in New York and Australia. Ben received a Bachelor of Commerce with First Class Honours from the University of Melbourne and an M.B.A. with High Distinction (Baker Scholar) from Harvard Business School.

Ben has a strong interest in public policy and his family has been involved in public service for two generations. Ben is a member of the Young President's Organisation (YPO), is involved in the Australian American Leadership Dialogue including being a Patron of the Young Leadership Dialogue, was Honored by the World Economic Forum as a Young Global Leader in 2009 and is a member of the Forum of Young Global Leaders. Ben lives in Melbourne with his wife and two children and grew up in Launceston, Tasmania.