

Mark A Joiner

Executive Director Finance

NAB

ACA, MBAMark was appointed Finance Director in March 2009 from his previous position as Group Chief Financial Officer, a role he took up in late 2007. Mark previously held the position of Group Executive General Manager Development and New Business, having originally joined National Australia Bank in 2006 as a member of the Australian Executive Committee.

Prior to joining NAB, Mark was Chief Financial Officer and Head of Strategy and Mergers & Acquisitions for Citigroup's Global Wealth Management business, based in New York. Before entering banking, he was with strategy consulting firm, Boston Consulting Group for 16 years, working out of various Australian and US offices.

Mark is originally from the UK where he qualified as a Chartered Accountant, and has an MBA with distinction from the University of Melbourne.