

The Bank of England Mervyn King THE GOVERNOR

Inaugural International Distinguished Lecture

The Melbourne Centre for Financial Studies in conjunction with Finsia is pleased to announce the inaugural International Distinguished Lecture. This will be a special occasion for Melbourne and the Australian financial community.

The Synopsis

At the invitation of Professor Margaret Abernethy, Dean Faculty of Economics and Commerce, The University of Melbourne, The Governor of the Bank of England, Mervyn King will deliver the first in the International Distinguished Lecture Series.

This is the only public presentation which Mr King will be making on his visit to Australia. The Governor of the Bank of England occupies one of the most influential positions in the world economy, and Mr King is renowned as an outstanding and engaging speaker whose insights and knowledge on economic and financial matters are highly valued.

This premium luncheon event is of special interest to those in the business, banking and finance sectors.

Finsia and the Melbourne Centre for Financial Studies encourage you to take advantage of this outstanding opportunity to bring staff, colleagues and clients together to hear from one of the world's most influential and engaging speakers. It is a great way to cap off the year.
